

Position Description

Position Title:	Peer Support Worker – Reach for Recovery
Program Name:	Peer Initiatives and Vocational Services	Position Classification:	5
Reports To:	Program Manager
Effective Date: July 2016	Review Date: July 2017

Position Summary:

Peer support is founded upon the principle that people who have life experiences in common have something to offer each other which cannot be provided by others. This approach assumes that individuals with mental health lived expertise either personally or through loved ones can better understand and relate to individuals trying to deal with their mental illness and are in a unique position to offer assistance.

The Peer Support Worker provides a therapeutic, safe environment that promotes personal recovery with either structured or non-demanding psychosocial educational programming in a community setting focused on wellness and recovery.

Key Responsibilities
